

"Components of Public Safety II" Fallen Hero

Sheriff's Office District 3
Gunn Highway & Citrus Park Mall

Stainless steel & steel from melted weapons

Bradley Arthur
© Bradley Arthur, B.A.# 2001-2003

Commissioned and owned by Hillsborough County Board of County Commissioners through its Public Art Program

The 4 ton artwork is made from stainless steel and steel from melted weapons collected by the Cease-Fire of Tampa Bay's gun buy back program. The missing component section and incomplete star represents a fallen hero. The section is on the ground in front. This work is located on Gunn Highway at the Sheriff's District 3 office at Citrus Park Mall, in Tampa, FL.

Arthur's sculpture was commissioned and is owned by Hillsborough County Board of County Commissioners through its Public Art Program.

Major support also provided by Peter M. Gottschalk AIA, AmeriSteel Corporation and Keene Metal Fabricators, Tampa, FL

Additional support provided by: Bracken Engineering Inc, Cox Electric, and Specialty Coatings of Central FL